RAAF Base Amberley now serviced by Quest

Stylish and comfortable accommodation can now be secured near RAAF Base Amberley with the June opening of Quest Ipswich – a new $7 million development in booming South East Queensland.

Located a close eight kilometres from the Base, Quest Ipswich offers 64 studio, one, two or three-bedroom fully-equipped serviced apartments. The onsite meeting room also allows Quest Ipswich to cater for conferences of up to 35 delegates.

All apartments feature wireless broadband internet access, balconies (apart from the studio apartments), separate living and dining areas, and fully-equipped kitchen and laundry facilities.

Providing an ideal off-base 'home away from home' other features include on-site car parking, a solar heated swimming pool and BBQ area

Quest Chairman, Paul Constantinou said the location of Quest in Ipswich was consistent with the group's philosophy of creating Quest properties where business demand dictated.

"Our property locations are chosen for their close proximity to business centres, restaurants, nightlife and shopping. We feel it's important that guests are close to where they need to be to conduct their business and where they can have lifestyle options too."

Quest Ipswich offers a centrally located property that takes advantage of Ipswich's central position on the national road network - 40 minutes drive from Brisbane, an hour's drive from the Gold Coast and 60 minutes drive from domestic and international air and sea ports.

Quest Serviced Apartments continues to strive 'to be everywhere you want to be' with Ipswich the 114 property in Quest's portfolio.

Quest Ipswich will open in June 2008.
